Delivery

DELIVERY

Generally, I deliver services to my clients via Zoom calls and email liaising.

I do sometimes see local clients face to face in my home office. You will be given details of the home office address before our meeting if we agree to a home office meeting.

Zoom for 1-1 meetings including website meetings

We will meet in a Zoom meeting room.

This can be accessed on your computer or smartphone. Laptop or desktop is recommended.

You can access it directly via a link that I will provide before our meeting. I usually pop it in a calendar invite (Google Calendar) and email it to you directly.

If you are not familiar with Zoom, I suggest you watch this video on how to join the meeting.

If you have any questions in the meantime please get in touch with me at:
natashaberta@me.com

I will generally create the Zoom meeting that we can attend.

If there is a no-show by you, the client, I will consider a reschedule depending on the circumstances.

If I have a problem and can't be there I will create a new time for us to meet.

If you have specific website pages, social media presence or other digital assets you'd like me to view prior to the meeting, please email them over to me for review.

Please ensure you have correct log ins handy for any online tools we will need during the meeting such as websites, email software and social media.

I will be all yours for the time we are together and most things can be resolved in the actual call.

LiveWebinar for course calls and group program calls

I use a software called LiveWebinar for group mentoring calls and course calls. This is a lot like Zoom except that you don't need to download anything ahead of time. You will simply click a link in a Facebook group, email or message and be directed to the LiveWebinar meeting room.

LiveWebinar is similar to Zoom but a little different. I acknowledge that it may feel clunky at first. Remember when you weren't familiar with Zoom? And how challenging that could be at times?

I expect you may have similar feelings when learning and using LiveWebinar at first.

If we cannot connect using LiveWebinar I may be able to find a Zoom workaround for you.

Consumer Guarantees

MINOR PROBLEM

A minor problem with my product or service is one that can be easily fixed. I would love to fulfil my obligation to repair the product or fix the situation free of charge within a reasonable time.

You can simply contact me at natashaberta@me.com with details of the fault and I will do everything in my power to remedy the issue.

Minor problems may include and are not limited to:

A PDF that refuses to open

A link that expires while your internet is down

A course platform you can't access

A link to a video that doesn't work

A password protected website page you can't access

The internet cutting out half- way through a call

I am ill and unable to attend a scheduled meeting

You are ill and unable to attend a scheduled meeting

Note, if an illness continues for a considerable time, this could become a major problem.

Please simply contact me immediately if you feel there are minor problems with my products and services so I can set things right as soon as possible. If I am unable to fix the problem I will consider a refund if you desire. I am also happy to chat with you to find a win win situation for us both. Please book a chat with me if you are having problems with a service or course here:

<https://connectedmarketing.com.au/30-minute-freebie-chat/>

MAJOR PROBLEM

A major problem is one that would have prevented you from purchasing if you had known about it in advance, where a product or service is unfit for its stated purpose and cannot easily be fixed within a reasonable time, is significantly different from the sample or description, is unsafe or creates an unsafe situation or where you have told me you want to achieve a certain result and the product or service fails to achieve that result or cannot achieve it within a reasonable time.

If you have paid for works with me and then had a change of mind halfway through the project, I can reimburse you for work not completed within a 90 day period from our last communication.

My works are all based on hourly rates (as of July 2021) $111/h for Done for You and $166/h for Face to Face sessions. I will refund you for works incomplete at the above rates. I track my work done for you in Asana projects. I manually enter time spent on your project and works done in that time. These are available for you to review as you request. Our email liaising is also a reliable source of works discussed and completed or not.

When a product or service has a major problem, you are entitled to choose what happens next. You can choose to:

- cancel the contract and demand a refund;

Natasha Berta Connected Marketing

Website Terms & Conditions

- seek compensation for the difference between the price paid and the services actually provided.

Refunds will exactly match the amount paid and be provided in the same form (eg via Paypal, direct deposit, cash etc).

If you find that you have a major problem with my product or service and demand a refund you can contact me via email with details of the problem.

I will take up to 7 days to consider your request. I will notify you of my preference for resolution.

If we do not agree we would attempt a face to face meeting. You can find a time for that meeting here: <https://connectedmarketing.com.au/30-minute-freebie-chat/>. That meeting would be a maximum of 30 minutes on Zoom where we could attempt to find a win-win arrangement to suit us both. If that is not achievable I would progress to find suitable mediation as per the Dispute Resolution information below.

If you cancel a contract for service by telling me, either verbally, in writing or by any other means you are entitled to a refund but you may not be entitled to a full refund. The amount you are entitled to depends on whether some or all of the services paid for were unsatisfactory or not provided.

If you cancel a contract that has been partly performed I will refer to the log of our project in my Asana task to see how much of the project you are eligible to be refunded for. This tracking will be provided to you at any time upon request via email.

LITIGATION

It is a condition precedent to the right of either party to commence litigation other than for interlocutory relief that it has first offered to submit the dispute to mediation.
